

Professional Development Planning
October 11th Addendum for Elementary Teachers

Please refer to the schedule matrix for activity times. Specific sessions indicate the following:

SMART Board Demo Session: Kathleen Pennington will offer a 30-minute mini session to include some quick ideas and strategies. Teachers who have been using a SMART Board in their classrooms should also share activities they have been working on in class.

Writer's Workshop w/Daphne Session: Daphne will meet with each grade level for an informal question and answer period.

Conferring & Mini Lesson Video Session: See table below for suggested clips:

Other items from which to choose for grade-level time depending on the needs of the group:

(First)

- ❖ Designate a note-taker for the day to record ideas, strategies and/or plans
- ❖ Designate a person to transfer the DVD to the next group
- ☐ Continue discussion of writer's workshop through sharing of strategies, lessons, planning, etc...
- ☐ Review narrative continuum and/or common core standards grade level standards at www.readingandwritingproject.com.
- ☐ Review common core standards charts for progression of skills
- ☐ Discuss assessments and/or create rubrics

BREAKFAST

Breakfast items will be available for you starting at 7:30 AM (Fruit, bagels, juice, etc...)

LUNCH

Hot dogs and hamburgers will be provided for lunch (Gregg is grilling). Bring a dish to share if you are interested in joining us. (Thought: You may want to organize dishes by grade level. For example, kindergarten teachers bring hot dishes; first grade teachers bring cold dishes; second grade teachers bring dessert; third grade teachers bring drinks; fourth grade teachers bring buns and condiments; fifth grade teachers bring paper products. This is not a requirement, just a suggestion.)
